BBC DOCUMENTARY ON PRIME MINISTER

India has blocked the airing of a BBC documentary which questioned Prime Minister Narendra Modi's leadership during the 2002 Gujarat riots, saying that even sharing of any clips via social media is barred.

While the BBC has not aired the documentary in India, the video was uploaded on some YouTube channels, Gupta said.

The government has issued orders to Twitter to block over 50 tweets linking to the video of the documentary and YouTube has been instructed to block any uploads of the video, Gupta said. Both YouTube and Twitter have complied with the directions.

Once there lived a family in a village. The father, mother and a son they were living happily.They used to get up by hearing the rooster's cock -a- doodle -do.
One night around 2 am Rooster started to make noise cock-a-doodle-doo. The family members thought it was 7 am in the morning so, the father woke up and felt tired to wake up now mother was feeling sleepy but still she managed to reach kitchen and do her chores and son started to cry he said he doesn't want to go school he want to sleep at last they all woke up and started to do their chores. After an hour the father went out to see why it is still dark the dog started barking father felt scared and ran to the house he came directly to his room to see the time. Alas it was around 3 am now the rooster was still making nosie cock-a-doodle-doo. The father came and shoo it off and told whole thing to his family what has happened. All of them started to laugh

HAPPY AND SATISFIED STUDENTS

SHIMA SYED MOHAMED

Former student, NCDC

I am Shima Syed Mohamed, an ordinary homemaker who thought devoting herself to the welfare of her family is the sole purpose of her life. Never in my wildest dream, I have thought of reminiscing my campus days through an online course. NCDC's PGDIME course not only enlightened me with academic wisdom but also helped me to reborn with confidence, patience, leadership, innovative thinking, robustness, creativity, and most of all compassion. My deepest gratitude to Smt. Bindhu ma'am, evaluator NCDC who was a catalyst throughout my NCDC journey, Sri. Baba Alexander who with his selfless effort made dreams come true for us all, Smt. Rahima ma'am who believed in my abilities and stood by me offering her care and support, and last but not the least my warmest hugs and best wishes to my irreplaceable 55th Batch comrades!
