Joyous News

The National Child Development Council (NCDC) celebrated one year completion of its Free Live Spoken English Class through social media.

In this connection, a virtual function was conducted by the NCDC management, which was attended by the faculty members of the council, including its Master Trainer, Baba Alaxander.

Renowned poet and writer from Jammu & Kashmir, Faheem Ul Islam attended the event as Chief Guest, who was warmly welcomed by the faculty members.

On the occasion, Faheem hailed the efforts of National Child Development Council (NCDC), particularly working for the welfare of children and women in India.

He also appreciated Master Trainer, NCDC, Baba Alaxander for conducting Live Spoken Class successfully, and highlighted the importance of English Speaking Skills in present era.

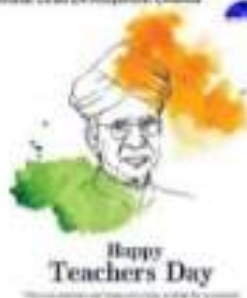

Notably, NCDC is a self-governing national child welfare organization, established to promote women and child welfare and ensure child education in India

Happy Teachers Day

Maharaja Chhatrapati Development Council

Teachers Day

These are our lovely and energetic faculties and our backbone Master Trainer Baba Alexander. All of these gems made this organization grow up and give wings to our trainees.

Thank you to all our teachers.

Happy teacher's day to all.
