NCDC celebrated women's day

It takes a big heart to help shape little minds.

Childhood

It's a world, fantasy world

It's a world, world of play

It's a world, world of joy

It's a world, world of innocence

Let the child to live therein..

Let them to make it as a colorful one.

Beauty

The sea looks so beautiful in its blue color.

Sky is more beautiful when its filled with stars.

Flower is too pretty with its fragrance.

Stars are stunning with its brightness.

We are attractive if we have a good mind.

War & Peace

This is the time to raise our voice against war.

What is the result of each war?

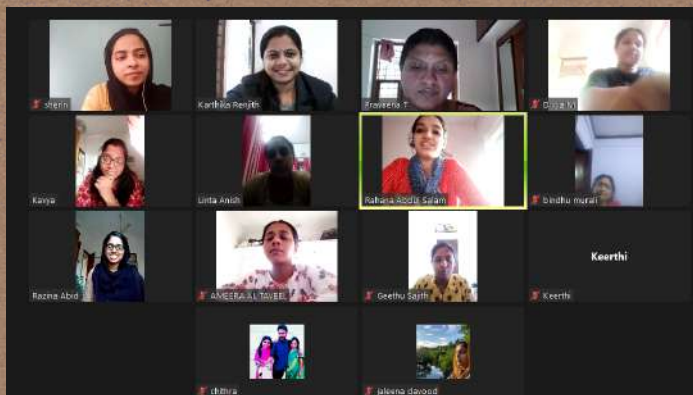

One country win the war over other one. But winner and looser countries ignore the tears of citizens of their countries who lost their family, house, job, happiness and even hope also.

It shouldn't be a problem of two countries, it 'll reflect all over the world. It cause the inflation, poverty, increase in the price of everyday commodities .

So stop war and build peace for the best future.

"My religion is based on truth and nonviolence."

-Mahatma Gandhi.
